

Contact: Jay Harrington
Company: Harrington Communications
Phone: 313.432.0287
Email: jay@hcommunications.biz

For immediate release:

Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors Announces Two New Hires

Detroit, Mich., May 6, 2014 – Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors, LLC has hired two new professionals to join its growing team. The firm welcomes Laurie Solotorow as Director of Philanthropic Services and Ronald DiCicco as Managing Director.

As Director of Philanthropic Services, Solotorow will work with firm clients to help them improve management and operational efficiencies, financial systems, and grantmaking strategies. She has 15 years of experience in helping non-profit and for-profit entities develop more effective operations. Prior to working at Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors, Solotorow spent 12 years in a senior consulting role at Plante Moran and held management positions at McLaren Medical Group. She received her Bachelor of Arts from Michigan State University.

Ronald DiCicco brings over 40 years of experience in the financial services industry to Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors. As Managing Director, DiCicco will work closely with the firm's founder and president Mark Neithercut to handle day-to-day management of the firm, as well as lead new business development initiatives. Prior to joining Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors, DiCicco held positions with several large regional and community banks. DiCicco received his Master of Management and Bachelor of Science from Central Michigan University.

###

About Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors

Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors, LLC works with family foundations and charitable individuals to create strategies for effective, rewarding philanthropy. Based in Detroit, with an office in Chicago, Neithercut Philanthropy Advisors provides clients with the confidence, direction, and capabilities they need to have a greater impact and derive greater fulfillment in their philanthropic affairs. For more information, please visit www.neithercutphilanthropy.com.